A judge is not the court. People v. Zajic, 88 Ill.App.3d 477, 410 N.E. 2d 626 (1980).

The U.S. Supreme Court has stated that "No state legislator or executive or judicial officer can war against the Constitution without violating his undertaking to support it." Cooper v. Aaron, 358 U. S. 1, 78 S.Ct. 1401 (1958)

Any judge who does not comply with his oath to the Constitution of the United States wars against that Constitution and engages and violation of the Supreme Law of the Land. The judge enacted acts of treason. Having taken at least two, if not three oaths of office to support the Constitution of the United states, and the Constitution of the State of California, any judge who has acted in violation of the Constitution is engaged in an act or acts of treason. IF A JUDGE DOES NOT FULLY COMPLY WITH THE CONSTITUTION, THEN HIS ORDERS ARE VOID. In re Sawyer, 124 U. THE LAW OF NATIONS OR PRINCIPLES OF THE LAW OF NATURE APPLIED TO
THE CONDUCT AND AFFAIRS OF NATIONS AND SOVEREIGNS:

16. Petitioner Asim Najee-Asmar Bey is Mu'ur / Moor National, our Nation comes under National or International Law. The "Families of Nations" went by THE LAW OF NATIONS OR PRINCIPLES OF THE LAW OF NATURE APPLIED TO THE CONDUCT AND AFFAIRS OF NATIONS AND SOVEREIGNS FROM THE NEW EDITION, by Joseph Chitty, Esq. Barrister At Law WITH ADDITIONAL NOTES AND REFERENCES, By Edward D. Ingraham, Esq., which state, "The 'Law of Nations' is the private international law between sovereign individuals, families, tribes, courts, grand juries, townships, counties, states and nations." This has been well established under various international conventions for thousands of years. All the administrative rules and regulations, statutes and the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC), and constitutions of various countries are based ultimately on the organic "Law of Nations." The "Law of Nations" is the "Law of Sovereigns," derived from the principles of natural law. It is from the "Law of Nations" that constitutions are created and lawful de jure governments consummated. Any government that portends to hold power and wields authority without being answerable to these Laws are - de facto and unlawful governments ruling by occupation, usurpation and exploitation. De facto governments justify their existence by the rule of force and coercion instead of the rule of Law. It is important to KNOW that sovereignty DOES NOT stand on its own. It is derived from your NATIONALITY... being part of a nation; as it is a part of your substantive rights, and is distinguishable i.e., unalienable (inalienable) rights, civil rights, and political rights.

MEMORANDUM OF CIVIL CAUSES OF ADMIRALTY AND MARITIME JURISDICTION

17. The District Court of the United States is the proper venue and has jurisdiction to enforce maritime liens, no other court can displace, discharge or subordinate them. This is a proceeding in ADMIRALTY.

18. "In this country, revenue causes under General Admiralty Rule 28, also known as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 28 had so long been the subject of admiralty cognizance, that congress considered them as CIVIL CAUSES OF ADMIRALTY AND MARITIME JURISDICTION, and to preclude any doubt that might arise, carefully added the clause, "including," etc. This is clear proof that congress considered these words to be used in the sense they bore in this country and not in that which they had in England. The Act gives exclusive admiralty and maritime jurisdiction to the district court. As a court of the Law of Nations, . . ." THE HUNTRESS, 12 Fed. Case 984 @ 992 & 989, (Case No. 6,914)(D.Me. 1840)

19. As further evidence that the action before the court is in fact an Admiralty action we find in United States of America v. $3,976.62 In currency, One 1960 Ford Station Wagon Serial No. Oc66W145329, "Although, presumably for purposes of obtaining jurisdiction, action for forfeiture under Internal Revenue Laws is commenced as Proceeding in Admiralty, after jurisdiction is obtained proceeding takes on character of civil action at law, and at least at such stage of proceedings, Rules of Civil Procedure control."

20. The Petitioners refer the court to 1 Benedict [6th Edition] §17, p. 28: which reads in pertinent part: "As no other than a court of admiralty can enforce maritime liens, no other court can displace, discharge or subordinate them. Neither the State courts nor the United States courts on their common law, equity and bankruptcy sides can divest, transfer to proceeds or adjudicate the

1 maritime liens unless the maritime lienor voluntarily submit themselves to the jurisdiction.

2 Emphasis added.

4 21. Pursuant to 28 USC § 2463 :All property taken or detained under any revenue law of
5 the United States . . . shall be deemed in the custody of the law and subject to the orders and decrees
6 of the courts of the United States having jurisdiction thereof.” Emphasis added.

7
8 22. As a further indication that the issue before the court is a matter of admiralty, Petitioners
9 refer the court again to “Benedict’s Admiralty,; 7th Ed., Col., 2 Chapter IV § 51 footnote 7. “ . . .
10 [I]t is now generally held that government tax claims under upon all property and rights of property
11 whether real or personal rank below all other maritime liens . . .”

13 23. “A cardinal principle, in which the practice of admiralty courts differs from that of courts
14 of common law, permits the parties to a suit to prosecute and defend upon their rights as such rights
15 exist at the institution of the action; the assignment of a right of action being deemed to vest in the 16 assignee all the privileges and remedies possessed by the assignor. According to the rule of common
17 law, the injured party alone is permitted to sue for a trespass, the damages being deemed not
18 legally assignable; and if there be an equitable claimant, he may sue only in the name of the injured
19 party. In admiralty, however, the common practice is to have the suit conducted in the names of
20 the real parties IN INTEREST.”

22 24. Parties subject to admiralty may not contract out of admiralty jurisdiction, and states may 23 not infringe on admiralty jurisdiction either judicially or legislatively. Since admiralty courts,
24 however, are courts of limited jurisdiction (which does not extend to non-maritime matters), 28 USC
25 § 1333(1), the “Savings to Suitors Clause,” does provide for concurrent state jurisdiction so that non-
26 admiralty remedies will not be foreclosed.

15
16 VIOLATIONS OF LAW:
17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
18 42 U.S.C. § 1983--AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

19 108. Petitioner realleges all paragraphs set forth above and incorporates them by reference as 20 though they were fully set forth in this cause of action.

21 109. Defendants at all times relevant to this action were acting under color of state law.

22 110. Defendants knowingly making false statements relating to evidence or information
23 obtained in the course of employment, and knowingly publishing a slander or a libel in the course of 24 business.

25 111. Defendants manufactured evidence;

26 112. Defendants used unlawful enforcement of contract not held

27 113. Defendants used illegal means in the collection of an alleged debt or obligation;

1 114. Defendants unlawfully imposed unconscionable contracts and contract terms on
2 Petitioner, not giving full disclosure, withholding material information from Petitioners and extorted
3 funds from Petitioner.

4 115. Defendants made an unreasonable and warrantless seizure of Petitioner and his personal
5 property in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States as
6 incorporated and applied to the states by way of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the 7 United States.
8

9 116. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants acted pursuant to a policy or custom of 10 Defendants State & County, depriving Petitioner of his personal property without court order and 11 without providing an opportunity for Petitioner to be heard.

12 117. Defendants failed to adopt clear policies and failed to properly train its public official
13 trustees as to the proper role of the public official trustees in private disputes.
14

18 policy, or otherwise implicate the conduct of foreign policy. See Garamendi, 539 U.S. at 418-20.

19 119. The Constitution prohibits states, "without the Consent of Congress," from "enter[ing]

22 it is an "Agreement or Compact . . . with a foreign Power" under the Compact Clause.
23

24 121. Because Congress has not given its consent to the Agreement, nor have Defendants
25 sought such consent, the Agreement and supporting California law as applied violate the Compact
26 Clause.
27

1 122. Defendants' actions individually and collectively interfere with the United States'
2 foreign policy on foreign relation with "Indians not taxed" and members of foreign national
